V. H. S. ON THE MOVE

According to the laws of nature, there is movement at all times. This movement is not confined to any particular section of the world, country, city, or town; neither does it mean any special type of movement. There is movement so small that it is hidden from the human eye; but, there is also a very noticeable movement: the movement of people going to and from one place and another through the events of everyday life. In school life there are many sights and sounds that prove this. Scurrying feet over the hall floors and up and down stairs in the five minutes break between classes, basketballs bouncing and fans waving wildly as they ready themselves for plenty of action, pens moving rapidly over paper or fingers busily pecking away on typewriters, shuffling of feet and tapping of pencils as the clock nears "bell time," these and many more movements make up the busy, everyday schedule in the lives of all at V.H.S.

"Which way do we turn next?" Junior and Senior officers frantically ask as they lead the Grand March.

Shangri-La

Shangri-la, presented by the Class of 1960, was the theme of the Junior-Senior Prom. It was held on May 15, 1959. The couples entered Boucher Gymnasium through a span of cherry blossoms over a white bridge. As they journeyed through the Japanese garden, they saw gaily painted Japanese screens, a gold and black pagoda in the center, and a mural of a small city in the distance. The sky presented a blue mist above the garden. Music was presented by the Phi Mu Cru Band of Ball State Teachers College. A happy evening in Shangri-la was memorable to all.

Handwritten notes in cursive script, including 'Hawaii', 'year', and 'Daly'.

LULL BEFORE THE STORM

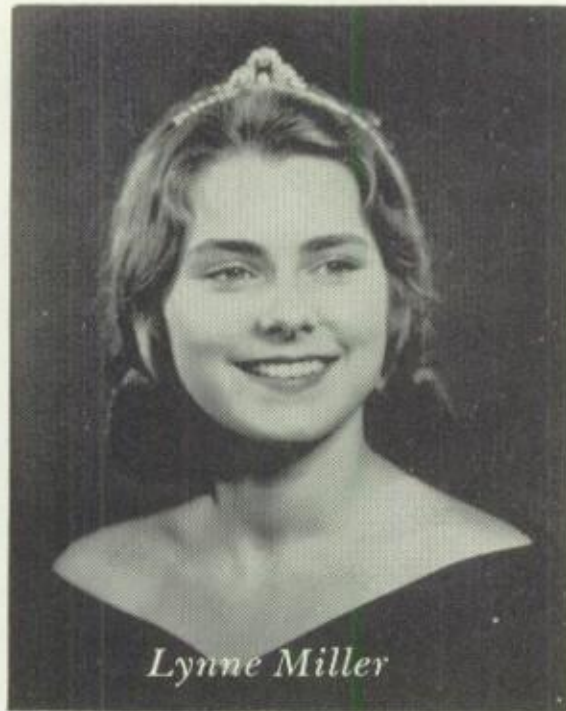

Homecoming

The annual Homecoming game was held on September 18, against Gary Froebel. After the game the students attended the traditional Homecoming Dance. The court was announced by the 1958 Junior class president, Jim Donley. Barbara Bolles was the first to approach the throne to the tune of "Stardust." Paula Snodgrass, escorted by Gary Marten and Tom Dean, was followed by Herta Dravininkas who was escorted by Bob Gore and Bob Gahl. Ed Swanson and Jim Loayza escorted Brenda Johnson. Last to step into the spotlight was Lynne Miller, escorted by Bob Boling. Sandy Sweet, Crownbearer, and Lee Black, Scepterbearer, preceded the Queen. Approaching the throne to become the 1959 Homecoming Queen was Marianne McKellips. Football co-captains Jim Donley and Dick Ebersold crowned the Queen.

"Smile for the picture!" Senior girls wait anxiously in the gym lobby for the moment to come when they can perform the annual senior girls' skit—a pre-Homecoming game amusement.

QUEEN TISH

The Class of 1959 is the first class to hold baccalaureate exercises in the new Valparaiso University Chapel.

The last few minutes find Seniors reminiscing over their past four years at V.H.S.

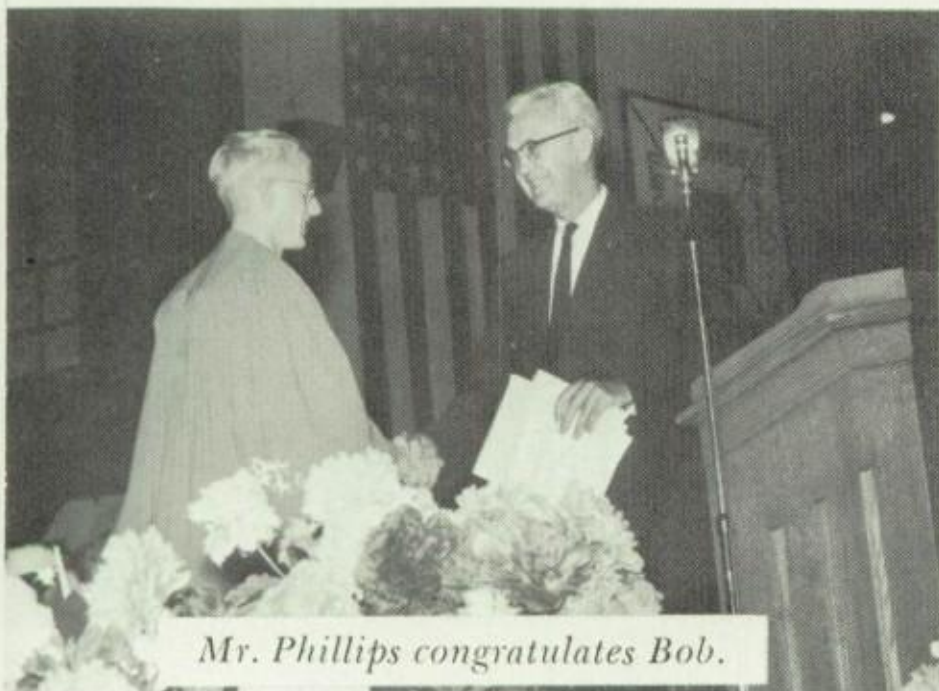

The End of the Beginning

Thursday evening, June 4, 1959, V.H.S. bid adieu to 177 seniors, the largest graduating class in Viking history. Not only was it the largest class, but no doubt one of the most versatile, for besides boasting four semi-finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Test, the seniors were largely responsible for one of the finest years V.H.S. has witnessed in basketball and cross-country.

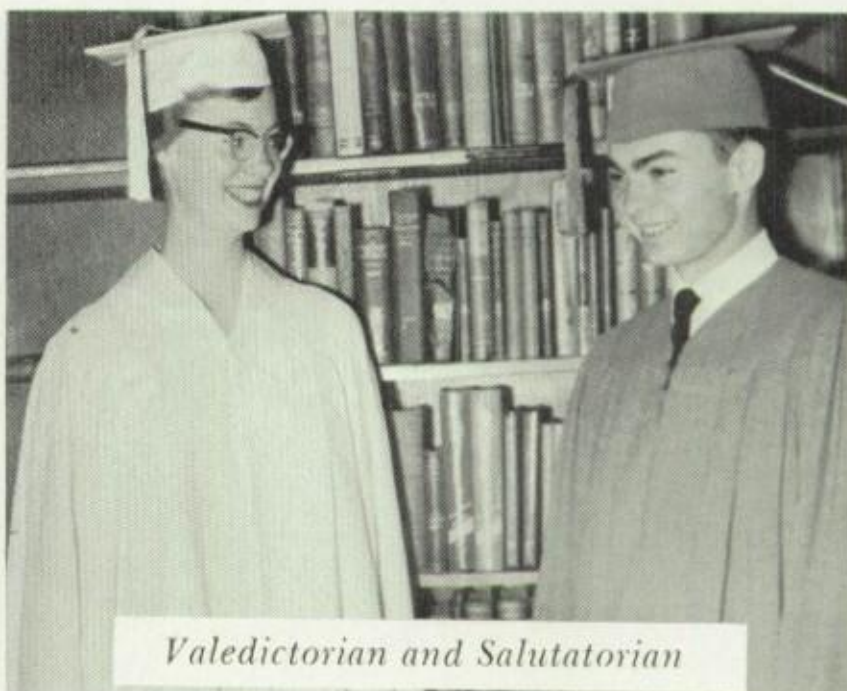

The graduating seniors had chosen as their commencement representative Bob Shankland, who spoke on his topic, "Passport to Success?" The graduation exercises were also highlighted by an address, "Forever Dissatisfied," by Dr. R. J. Humbert, President of DePauw University. Immediately following Dr. Humbert's speech, Principal King Telle presented the diplomas to the awaiting grads-to-be.

Then came the moment which signified the passage from seniors to graduate—the turning of the tassels. The members of the "class of 1959" were now alumnae.

Mr. Phillips congratulates Bob.

Valedictorian and Salutatorian

ACADEMIC

Those hands—what do they do all day long? No matter whose they are, you can bet their actions accomplished many, many things throughout the school day. They could be feverishly scribbling out that last-minute assignment, or shuffling frantically through the disordered locker as “bell time” approaches. Perhaps they are deliberately beginning that dreaded unit test, or hurriedly finishing that “unfair,” unexpected pop quiz. While these hands are doing so many things in a day at V.H.S., there other hands at work, but in a different way. How many times each day do these strong, helping, teaching hands guide aright the younger, immature one, so that some day, they too may be strong!

Mr. Mann Spitler, Jr., president of the board, is an electrician at Fadell Electric in Gary.

Mr. Morris Groverman, district manager of the Northern Indiana Public Service Company, is vice president.

Mrs. Anne Niequist, secretary, is a housewife and former Valparaiso elementary teacher.

Mr. Joseph Durand, the treasurer, is vice-president of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association.

Mr. Preston Platt, the fifth member of the board, is district manager of the General Telephone Company.

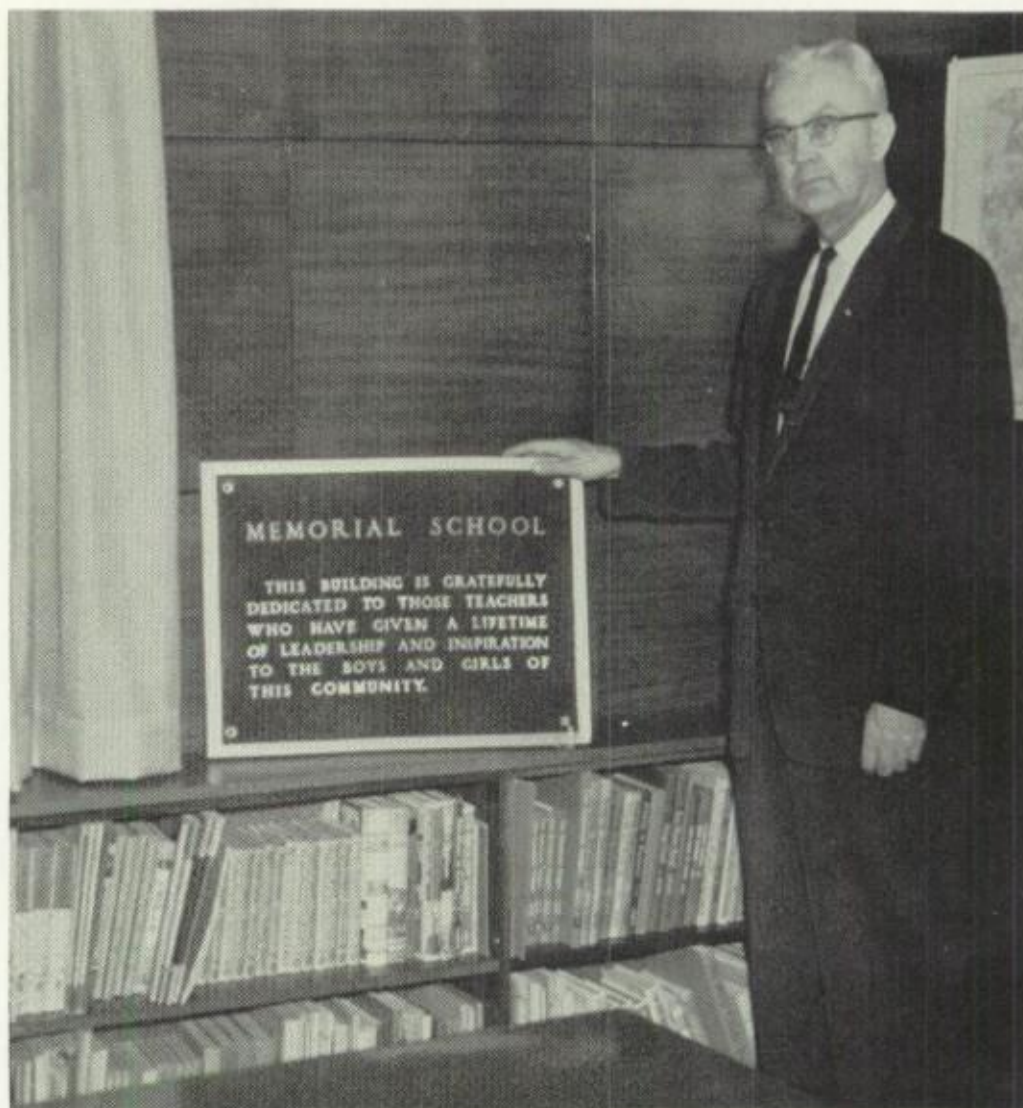

Mrs. Jolley and Mrs. Richard serve as receptionist and secretary to the Superintendent, Mr. G. Warren Phillips.

Mr. G. Warren Phillips, Superintendent of Valparaiso Community Schools, is the executive officer of the Board of Education. He sees to it that the laws of the state and policies of the board are carried out. Other responsibilities include the improvement of curriculum and management of personnel and finances. Mr. Phillips is constantly improving the school system and through his efforts the Valparaiso Community Schools have become highly rated in Indiana. Mr. Phillips graduated from De Pauw University where he received his Bachelor of Arts, and from Indiana University where he received his Master's Degree.

The Board of Education is chosen from the citizens of the community because of their prominence in civic affairs and their special interest in the school system. They are elected for varying terms of two, three, and four years by the City Council. The Board makes the laws concerning the schools, and these laws are enforced by the School Superintendent, Mr. Phillips.

Mr. Telle as principal of V.H.S. has endless duties in keeping the school running smoothly. He is eager to help any student with a problem and is admired and respected by the whole student body for his warm smile and for his support of scholastics, social, and athletic activities. Mr. Telle received his A.B. from Hanover College and his M.S. from Indiana University. Valparaiso High School was indeed fortunate when he accepted the responsibility of becoming its principal.

Mr. Roberts as Industrial Coordinator of V.H.S., spends his time supervising the maintenance of city schools and school construction. He received his B.S. degree from Ball State Teachers College and his M.A. from Iowa State College.

"They Guide Us On."

Mr. James Mundy, the assistant principal, aids Mr. Telle in the solution of administrative problems and has complete charge of attendance. Another of his duties is to keep track of the lockers and their combinations. Mr. Mundy is the sponsor of the Student Council. He also directs the hall monitors. He received his B.S. and M.A. from Ball State Teachers College. His secretaries are (from left to right): Mrs. Tofte, S. Butterfield, H. Oliver, C. Binder, D. Dierson, B. Bolles, A. Swihart, (seated) S. Kline, I. Zeman.

Mr. Henkel, director of the guidance department, acts as an advisor to the students by helping them plan their educational program. Each year he interviews each student to find out his interests and abilities. By using the results of tests and the information gathered from personal interviews, he advises the students in their vocational selection. Mr. Henkel also collects information from college and universities throughout the country, which is available to all. Mr. Henkel received his A.B. from Valparaiso University and his M.A. from Northwestern University. His secretaries are (from left to right): Mrs. Tofte, C. Stevens, B. Kuehl, P. Powell, P. Underwood, M. Youngren, B. Brookover, A. Benell, A. Haines.

"You should have been at the beach, kids," says a group of Mr. Conkling's English 5 students, as they portray "Beatniks" at a beach party, in pantomime.

Our Able Faculty

"Very very good!" exclaims Miss Black as she grades one of her freshman English student's papers.

"Papers and more papers!" says Mrs. Bowman, who teaches English 1 & 2, 3 & 4.

"Schmoid!" Mr. Brown explains the paper was as "Schmoid" to his 7 & 8 Senior English classes.

Mrs. Conkling has "Great Expectations" for her freshman English students.

"Do your stuff" is a famous quotation at V.H.S. of Mr. Conkling. He teaches English 3 & 4, 5 & 6.

"Et tu, Crume?" And you too will study "Caesar" if you have Mr. Crum for English 4.

In Urging Us On

"Schweigen Sie, bitte!" means, "Now class" in Mr. Hummel's German 1 & 2 class. Mr. Hummel also teaches English 5 & 6.

"On your mark, get set, go!" In addition to Personal Typing and Typing 1, Mr. Rump teaches General Business and Business English.

"See, English CAN be fun." Miss Shauer teaches English 1 & 2, 3 & 4.

Buena Suerte!
Mrs. Bauer

"Pronounce it 'O-o-o-o,'" says Mrs. Bauer who teaches Spanish.

Gallia est omnes divisa in partes tres is commonly heard in Miss Craig's Latin classes.

Donates Extra Time...

Three strikes and you're out!

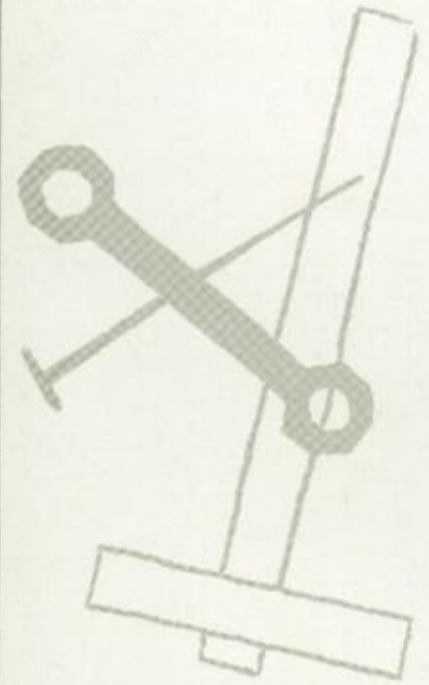

"You must see it in the mind before you can draw it on paper," says Mr. Rhoda who teaches Mechanical and Architectural Drawing.

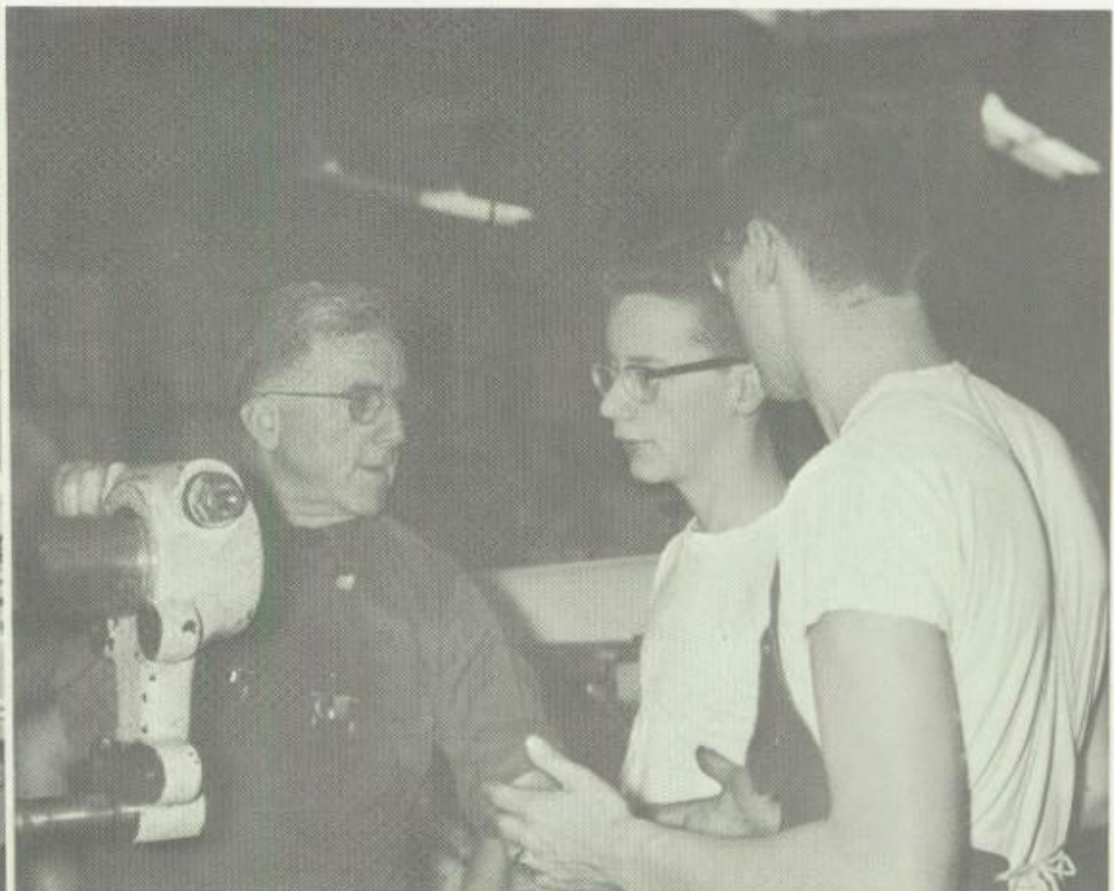

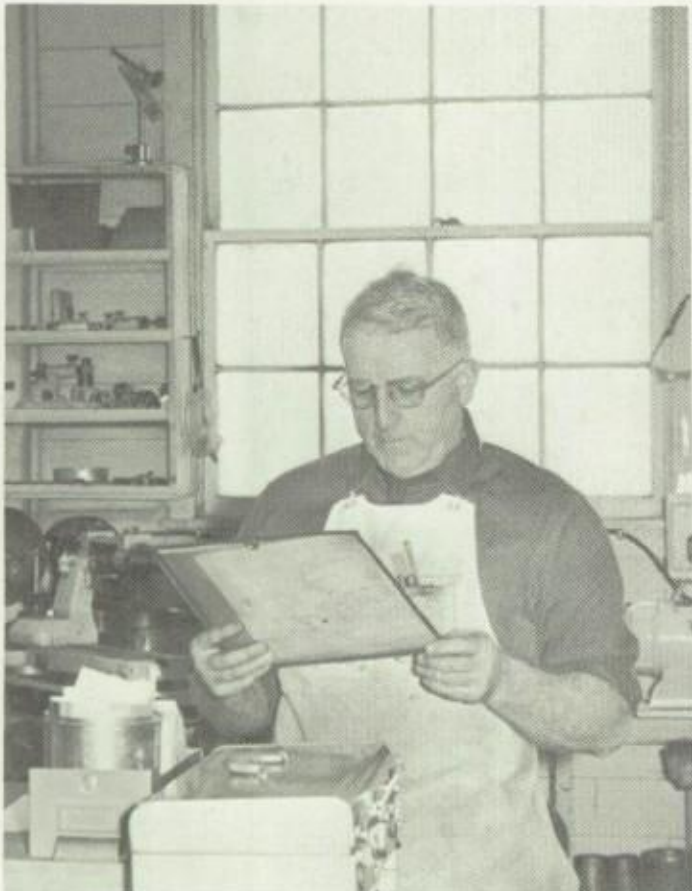

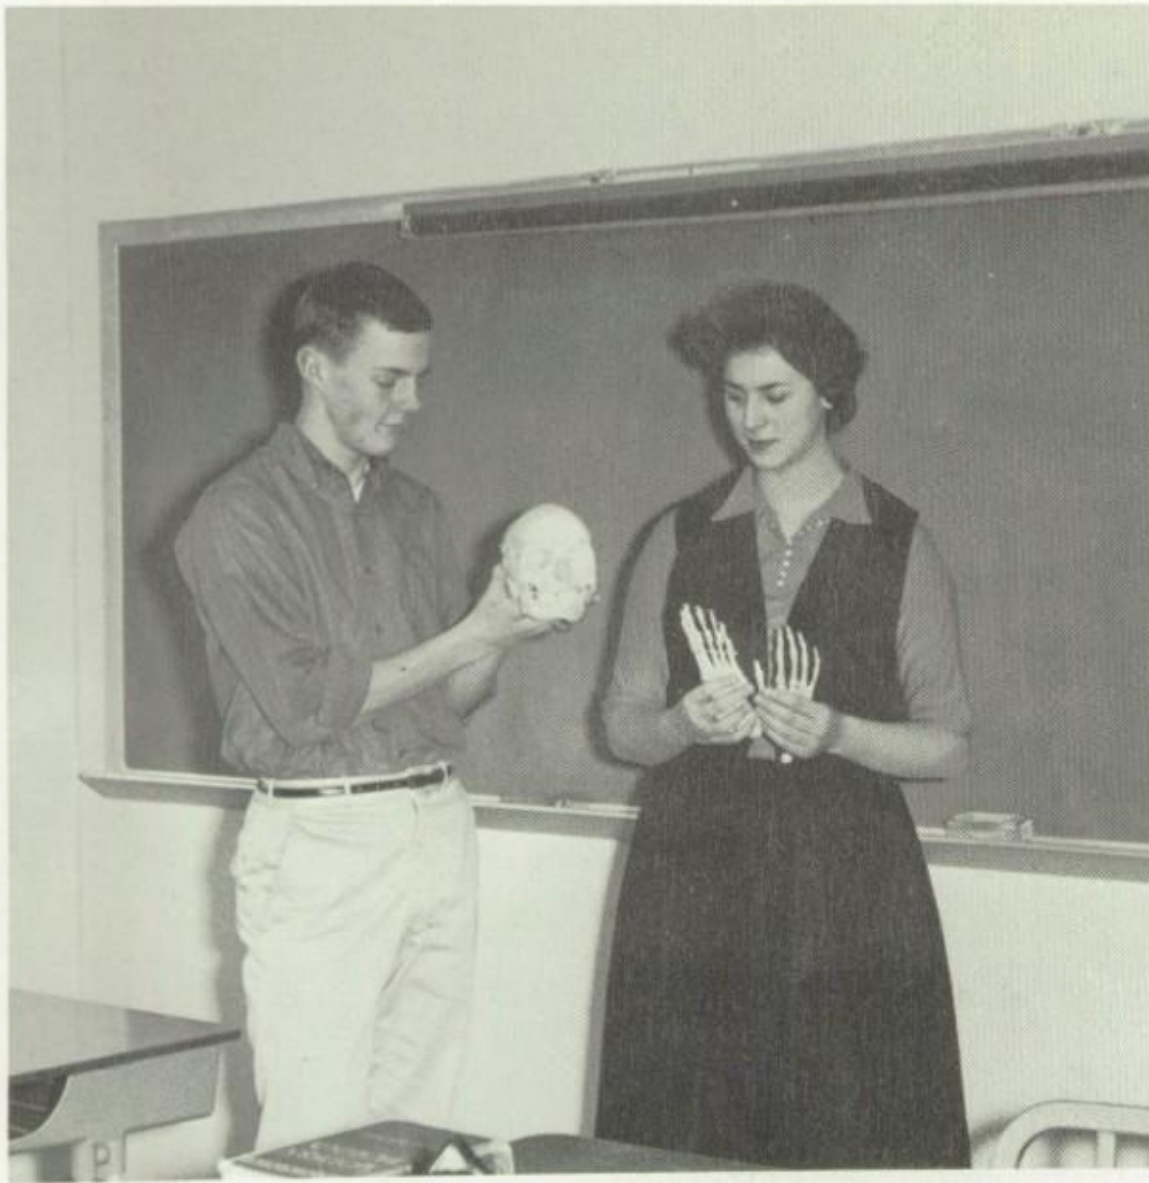

"Work with the grain, boys." Mr. Brammel teaches Wood Shop.

Guiding and Directing Us...

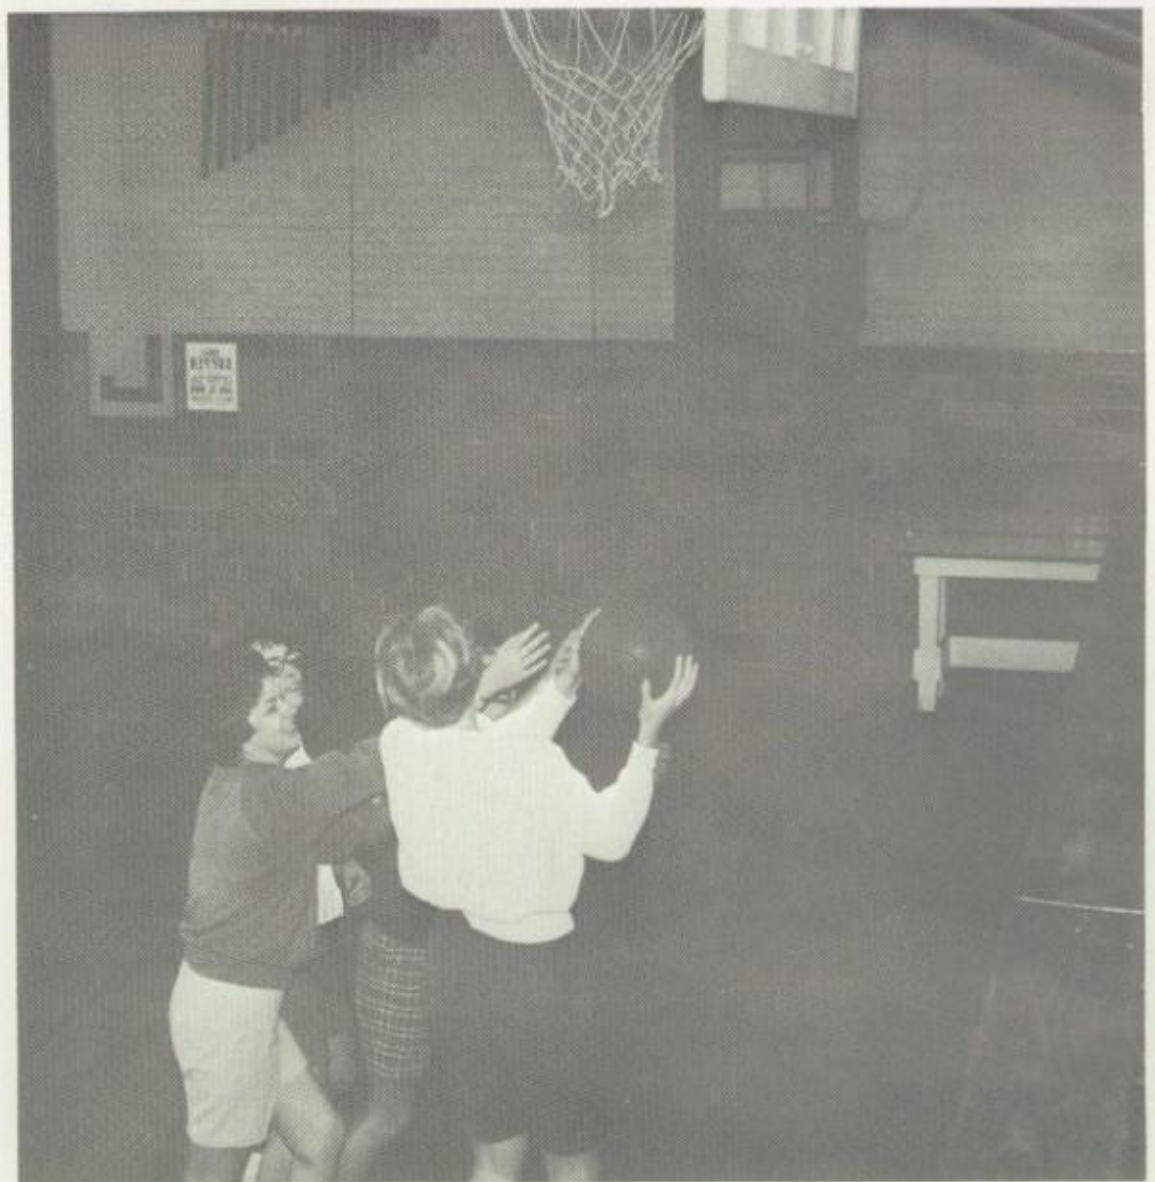

Craftsmanship is accuracy! Mr. Pifer, teacher of Machine Shop, checks the drawing for his boys.

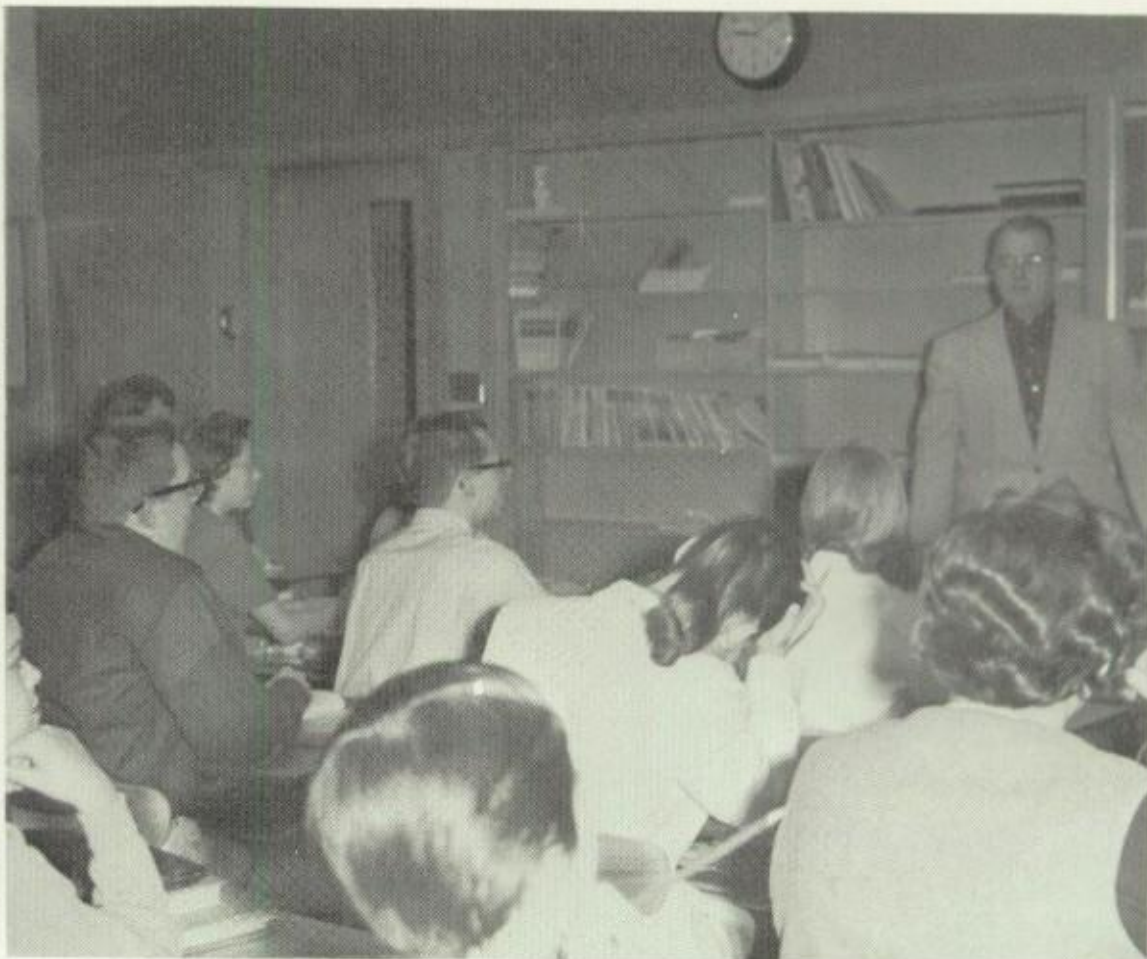

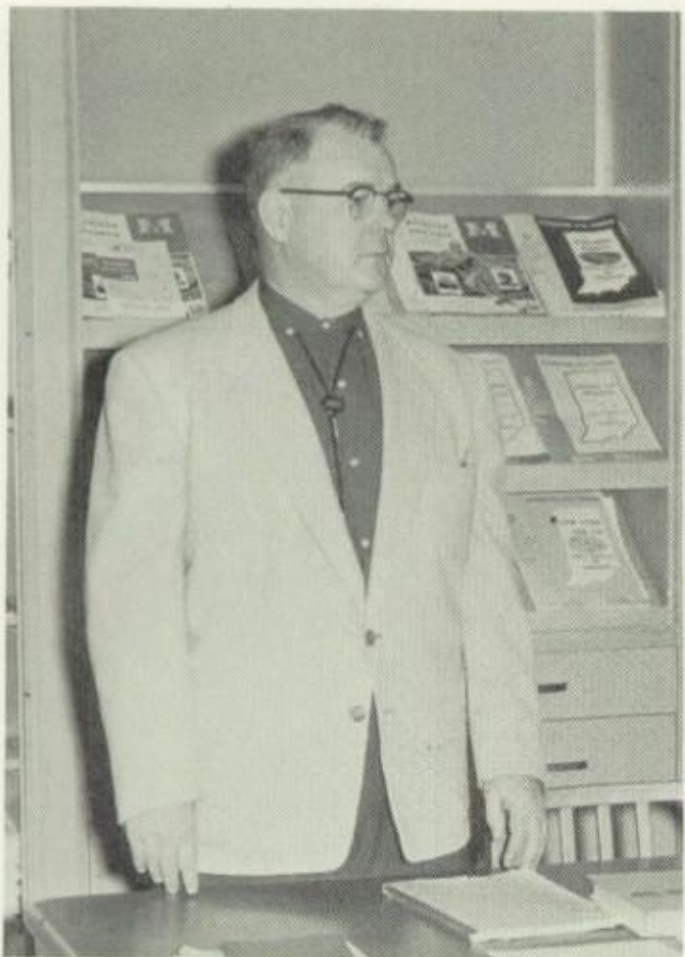

"The head bone's connected to. . ."
explains Mr. Sweet, teacher of Health and Safety and Physical Education.

"Team five, get your pennies," says Mrs. Wiechmann who teaches Physical Education and Health and Safety.

"What did you say that answer was?"
Mr. Wiggins teaches General Business, Business Law, and Driver's Training.

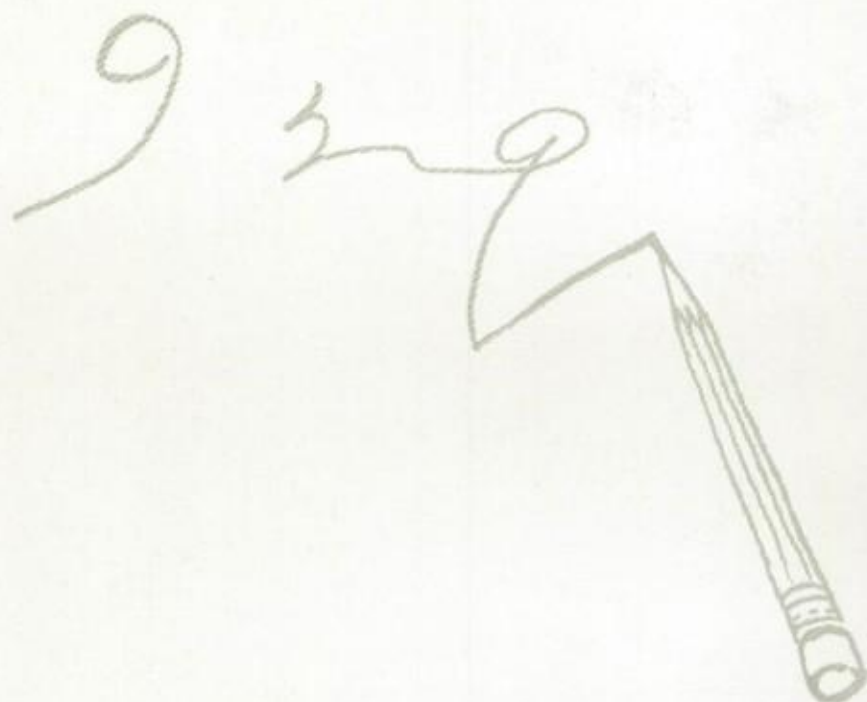

Conducting Classes . . .

"Now let's back out slowly today."

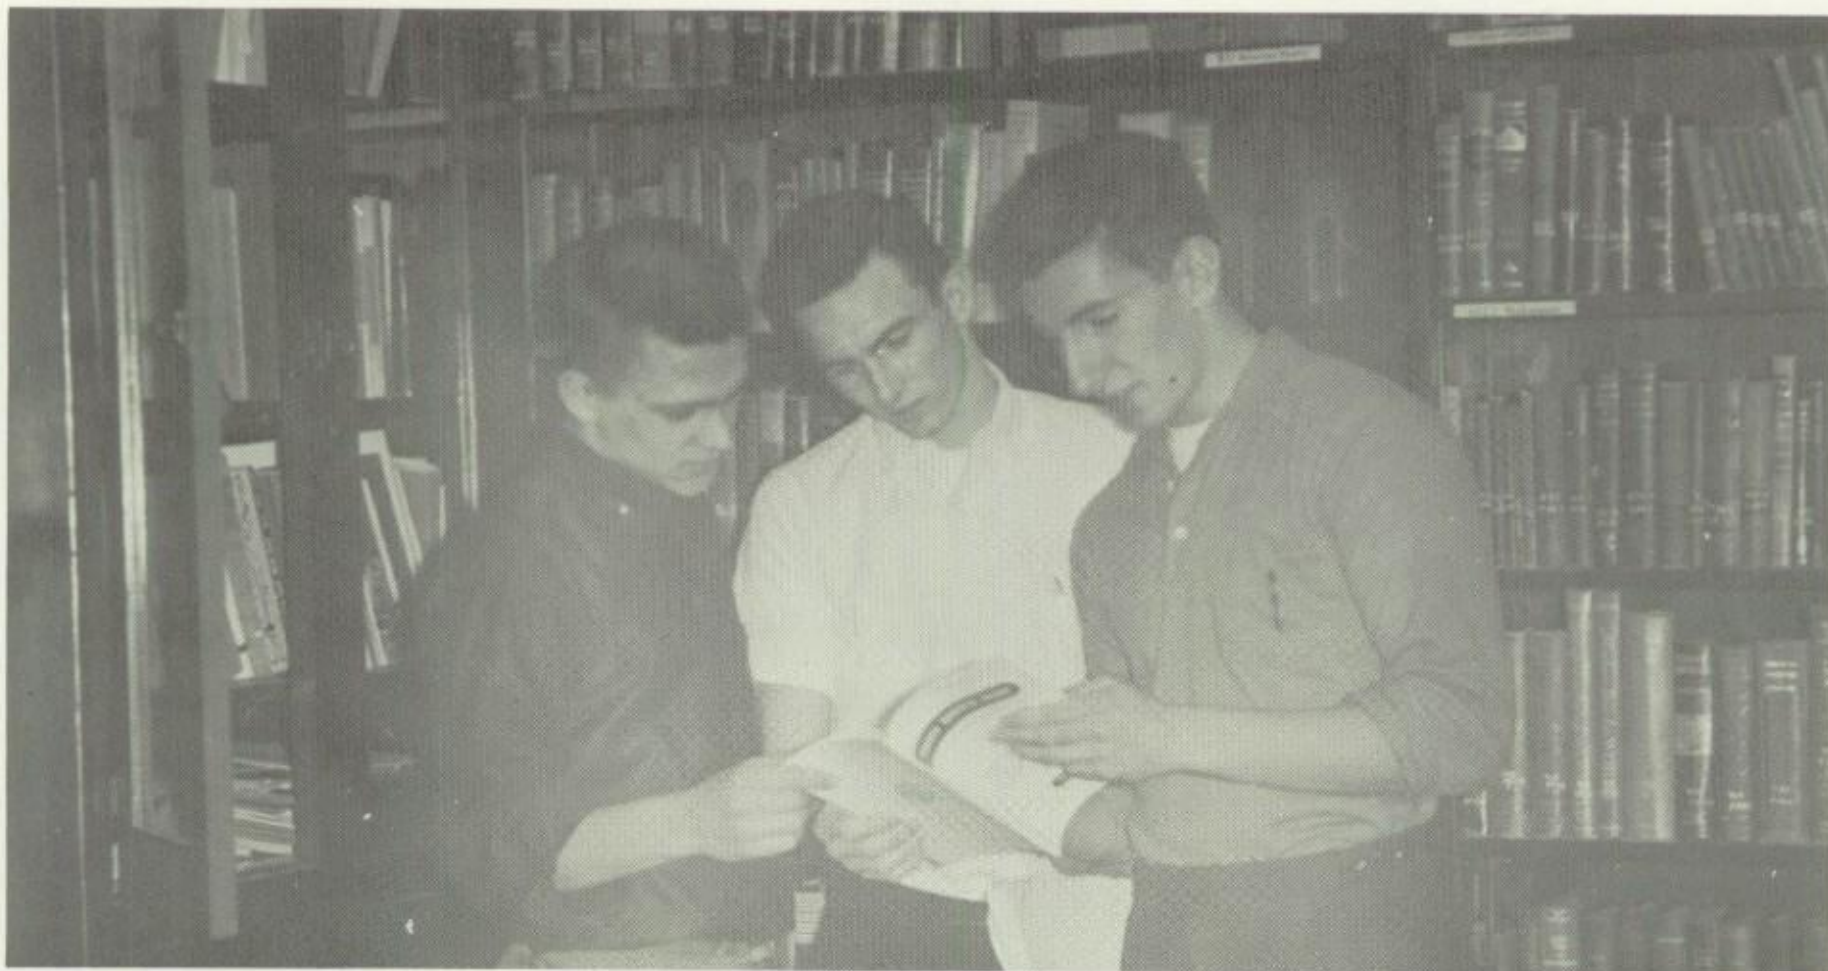

"It's really very simple, once you know how," assures Mr. Rohn, teacher of Shorthand.

Stimulating the Pursuit of Learning . . .

"A-S-D-F-J-K-L-Semi," repeats Mr. Johnson hour after hour to his typing classes. He also teaches bookkeeping.

Where to go . . . what to do . . . is the main thought of these Senior boys as they gaze through college bulletins.

Building Character . . .

"Please bring your library books back on time," is the plea of Mrs. Decker, the school librarian.

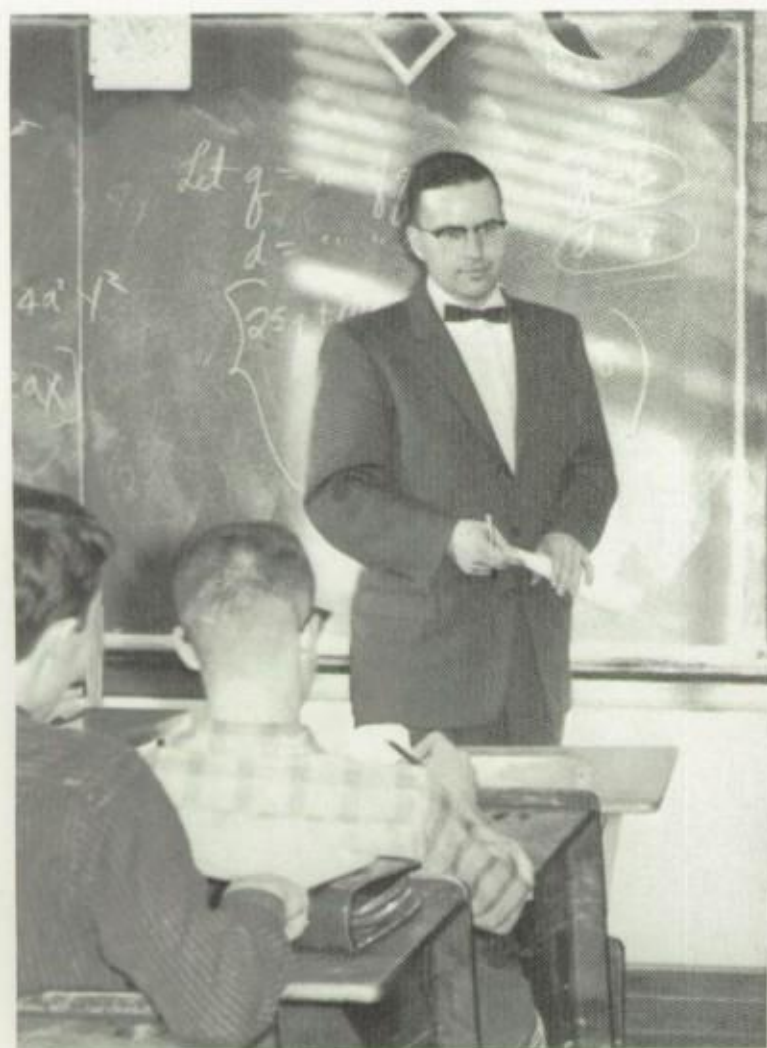

Interpolate is one of the many new expressions heard by Mr. Euler's math classes.

Senior class sponsors, Mr. Hildreth, Mr. Schnepf, and Mr. Williams.

Sponsoring Social Activities . . .

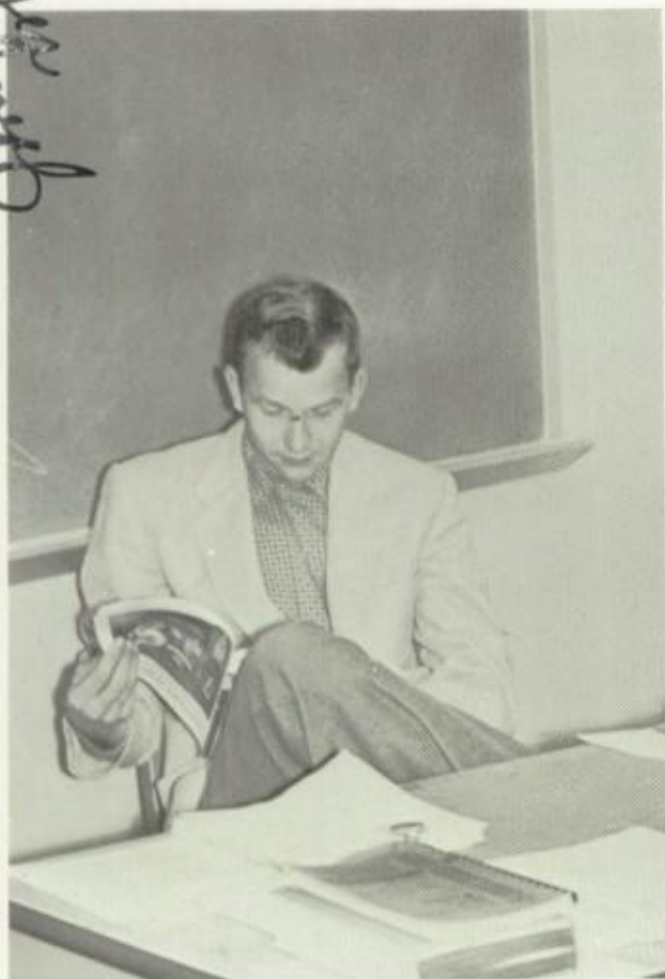

Facts, Figures, and Fun. Miss Green combines all of these into her algebra classes.

$X + Y = Z$. Miss Huber taught first semester Algebra.

"Now why can we do this?" asks Mr. Maiers of his geometry and general math students.

Robert Schnepf

"Let's see what America is doing today." Mr. Schnepf is a teacher of Economics and U. S. History.

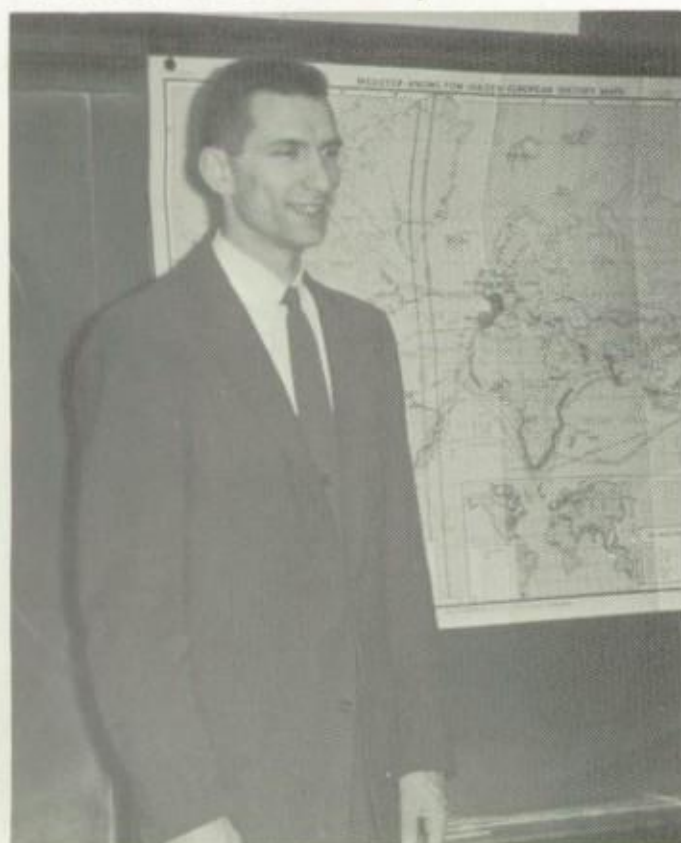

"Take this down in your notebook; it's very important," says Mr. Hildreth teaches Civics and Sociology.

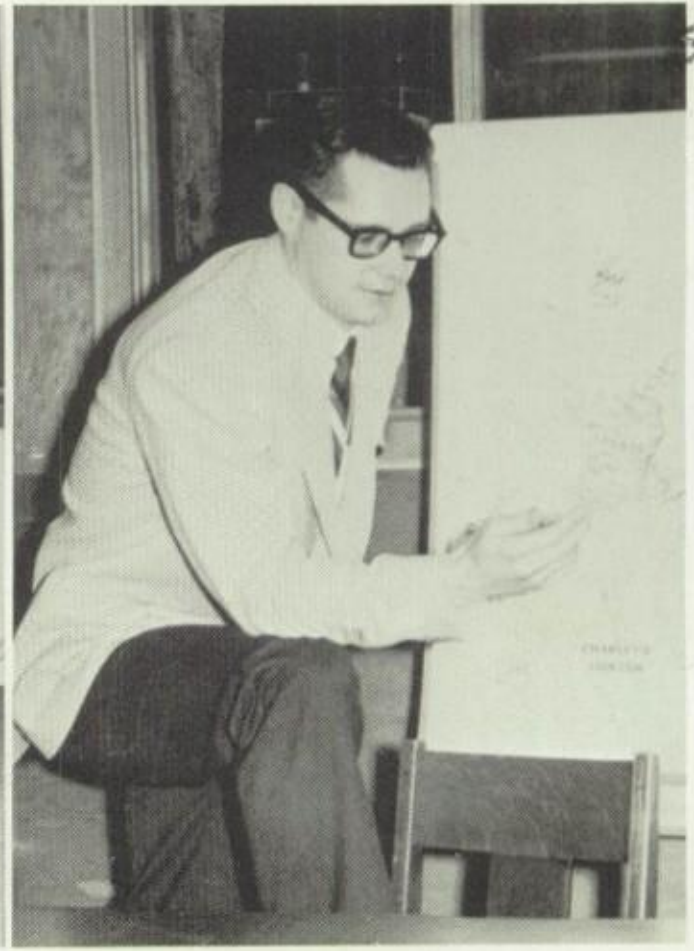

Combining Classes with Facts and Fun

"Now close your book and ponder the nature of man." Mr. Ciciora teaches World History.

"Get the idea?" Mr. Schenck prods his students on in U. S. history class.

"When the peace conference met in Paris . . .," explains Mr. Richardson to his students of Economic Geography and U. S. History.

Grading Papers, Recording Grades . . .

Sir, would you please repeat that statement for the benefit of your television audience?

"This is an example of our next project," points out Mr. Cain, the art teacher.

"I was really proud of this one," smiles Mr. Miller, the Band Director.

Is the Guiding Force . . .

"Softly now," says Mr. Dunn who teaches Choir.

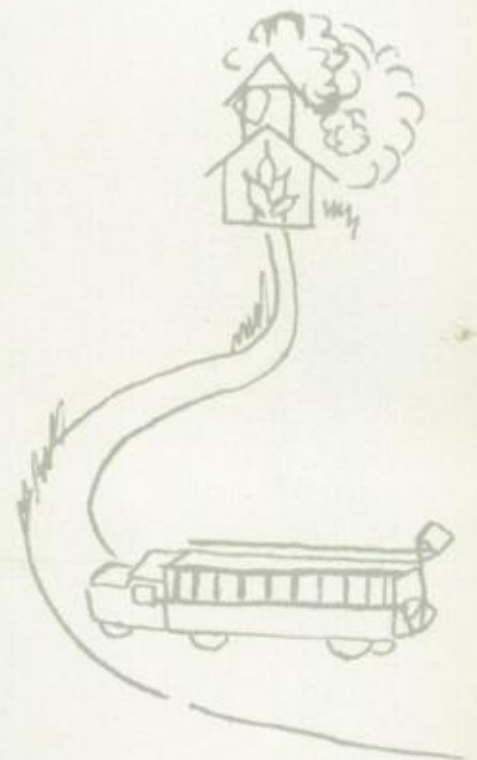

"Some of the better-made blouses will be put on display," states Miss Weems, teacher of Home Economics.

Behind the Scenes

School's out, but only for a fire drill.

"Students, come take a look at this," directs Mr. Miller, biology teacher.

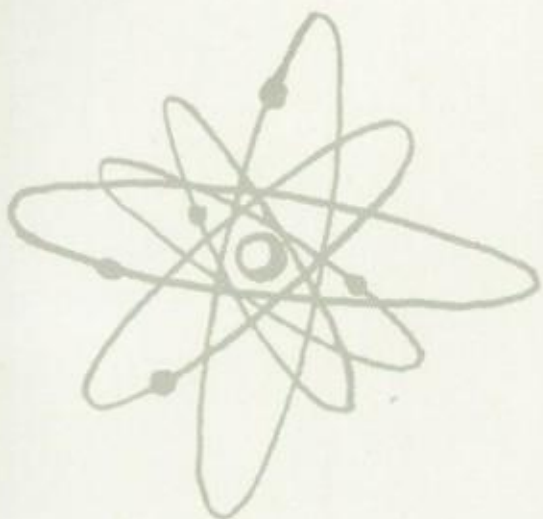

"No class, that's not a maple leaf, that's a sassafras," smiles Mrs. Bush as she corrects her biology classes.

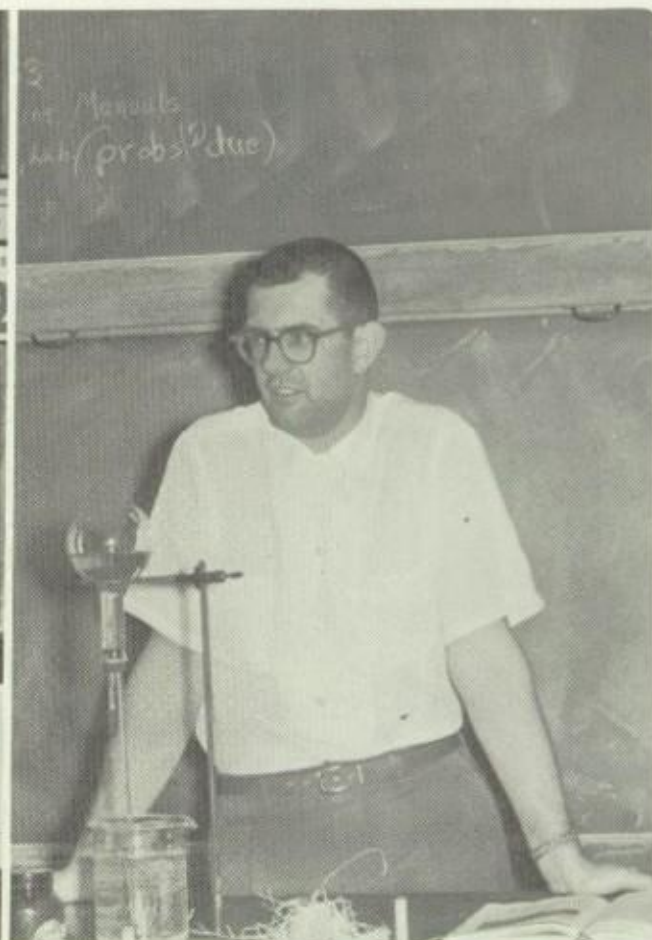

Preparing Today's Youth

This plant food really works!

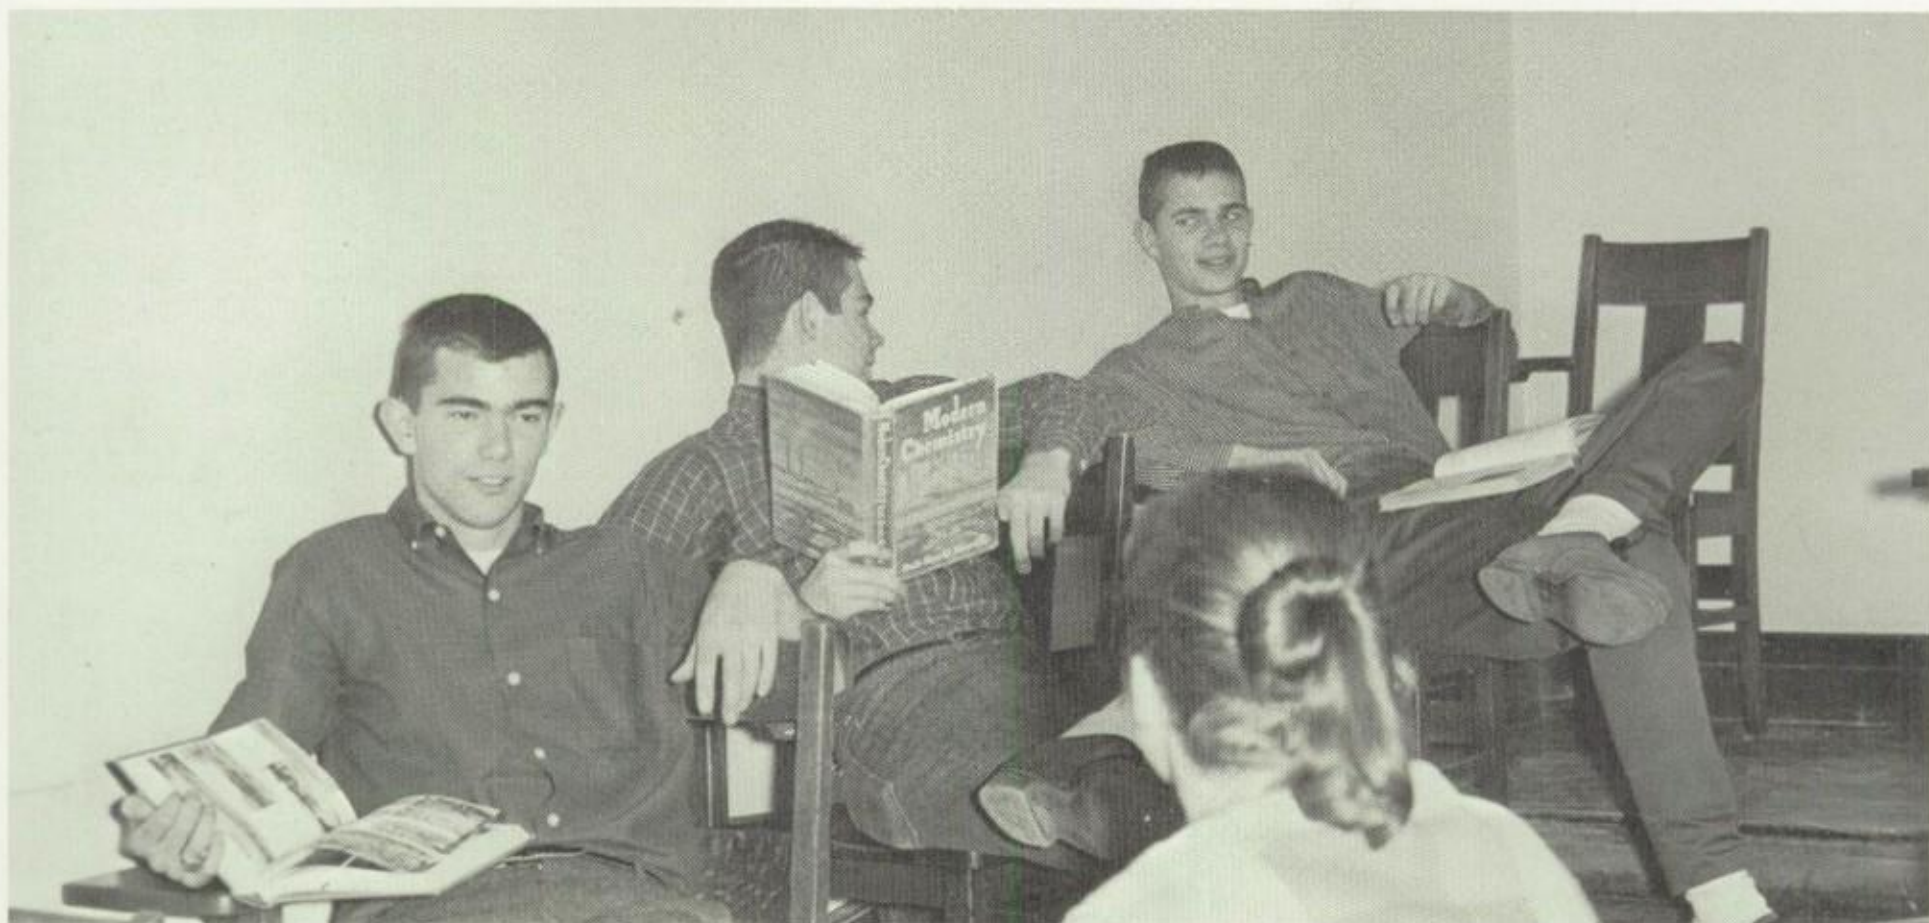

Light is considered to be a form of energy . . . Mr. Apgar teaches Physics and Algebra.

"The atom is made up of neutrons, protons, and electrons," explains Mr. Williams, chemistry teacher.

For Tomorrow's Challenge

Mind over matter!

ALBUM

It seems as though all the kids in Valpo can be found at Brownies after a V.H.S. football, or basketball game! So many kids, in fact, that it's a real problem to locate a seat. These teens obviously don't spend all their time at Brownies, though. No sir, they're a busy group, for there is school, plus that part-time job, a Saturday night date, and countless other things to keep a high-schooler moving. But that's the real story of students today, we guess—Teens on the Move.

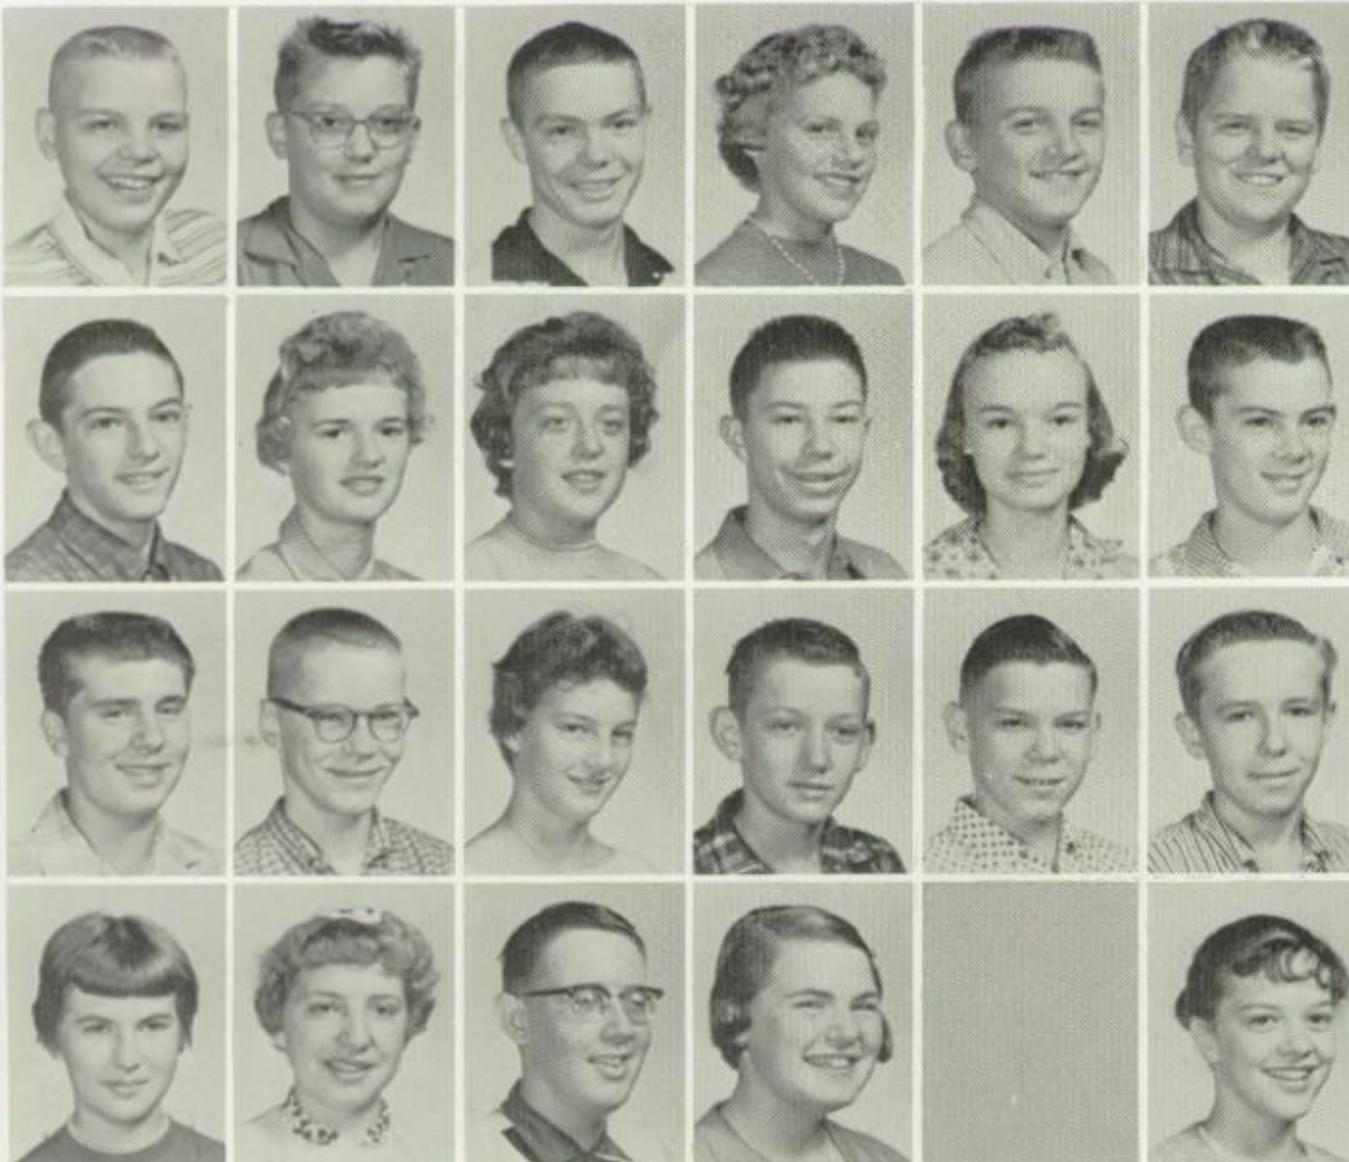

At First

Just out for a breath of fresh air.

The class of 1963 got into the swing of things by electing their class officers who are as follows: Al Gott, president; Dave Carlson, vice-president; Cherie Pierce, secretary; and Bob Eiler, treasurer. A bit bewildered at first, they stepped into our hearts by participating in the various activities and by proving their scholastic ability.

As usual they encountered many problems such as getting acquainted with the school and its members, learning how to use their lockers, and the leaf searching which is required for biology. Though they'll always remember their freshman year, they are now ready to take the role of sophomores.

At the completion of a successful year, the members of the class of 1962 are waiting anxiously for their class rings and becoming upperclassmen. During the year the sophomores took an active part in the various organizations of V.H.S. and also contributed many athletes to various sports. Heading this year's class was president, Steve Wermcrantz; vice-president, Brenda Brown; secretary, Mary Green; and treasurer, Nita Flowers.

Juniors . . .

The election of class officers started off a year filled with many activities for the Class of 1961. Bob Kitchen was chosen as president, Jerry Prentiss as vice-president, Janet Eckert as secretary, and Sharyl Stoltz as treasurer. Class rings arrived right on schedule in the first part of September. As 1959 drew to a close the Juniors began planning the great event of 1960—the Prom. Class spirit was at its highest peak as the Juniors discussed themes, made arrangements, and finally decorated the gym for the biggest formal dance of the entire year. As the school year ended, the members of the Junior class reflected fond memories of their first three years of high school, and anticipated, somewhat regretfully, their last year at V.H.S.

Have you heard the latest gossip?

"Gee! is that what we did last meeting?" asks Jim Donley, treasurer, Gary Marten, vice president and Ed Swanson, President as secretary Sally Jox, reviews the minutes.

As the members of the Class of 1960 depart from the halls of V.H.S., they will take with them many memories of their four years in high school. As freshmen, the Class of 1960 spent most of their spare time searching for leaves and pondering over first year algebra. Bewildered at first, they soon got acquainted with the school routine and began joining clubs. The big moment in their sophomore year was the selection of class rings. As juniors, the Class of '60 became responsible upperclassmen who were busy with many various activities. They attended the annual Speech Banquet and planned the Junior-Senior Prom. Finally, the class became Seniors with all the honors that belong to a graduating class. The Senior class was led by its officers; President Ed Swanson, Vice-President Gary Marten, Secretary Sally Jox, and Treasurer Jim Donley. Ellen Flood and Bob Brown, through their efforts, were chosen Valedictorian and Salutatorian, respectively. When Spring came, it brought Baccalaureate and Graduation. With the turning of the tassels, the Class of 1960 became graduates and now belong to the future.

ACTIVITIES

The room is hushed; the atmosphere is tense. It's a big moment for some V.H.S. girls, for this is the moment when they shoulder responsible positions in Y - Teens, a service - minded club at Valpo High. The male counterpart of this group is the Hi-Y which tries to mold the good character of its members. Yes, clubs and activities play an important role in the life of the V.H.S. student. He or she can find many enjoyable hours as a part of some extra-curricular group. All students can find activity which appeals to them as the clubs are organized for quite varied purposes and objectives. So always keep in mind that high school has much to offer besides that which is found in the classroom.

The Hi-Y, the boy's Christian organization, is a worthwhile and industrious club. Among its activities are the annual Father-Son Banquet, swims at the local "Y," and attending the different churches in town, as a body. This year for the first time, the Hi-Y with the Y-Teens sponsored the Christmas Formal. Its sponsors, Mr. Schenck and Mr. Apgar, along with the members had a very busy year.

Chip O'Neill, secretary, Mr. Apgar, co-sponsor, Mike Butterfield, treasurer, Larry Klemz, president, and Jim Donley, vice-president, discuss the procedures of the next Hi-Y meeting.

OFFICERS: Carol Sedgwick, treasurer; Janet Robinson, secretary; Barbara Bolles, vice-president; Marianne McKellips, president. SPONSORS: Mr. Crum, Miss Black, Mr. Richardson.

Pep Club . . .

At the beginning of the year, Mrs. Schiek turned over her duties as sponsor of the Pep Club to Miss Black, Mr. Richardson, and Mr. Crum.

This year the Pep Club had more than four hundred members, all of whom supported the teams consistently. At the home football games, the goal posts were decorated. The Pep Club made the traditional paper football through which our team burst onto the field. During the basketball season the Pep Club forms a block section. This year the girl members exchanged their green pep hats for white ones. When the Vikes played at home the Pep Club also made the traditional paper basketball and the large sign behind the block section. Tickets were sold for out-of-town games and buses were scheduled to transport the cheering block. Throughout the year, posters in the halls informed students of all sports activities. The Pep Club sponsored the Kick-Off, Homecoming, and Basketball dances.

Y-Teens

The Y-Teens this year have new sponsors, Miss Craig and Mrs. Bush. These two and the board led the club through a year filled with activities. The mixing bowl welcomed new members who were later inducted at an impressive candle-light service. The Y-Teens sponsored the King of Hearts Dance in February. Together with the Hi-Y, the Y-Teens helped in sponsoring the Christmas Formal. The year ended traditionally with the Mother-Daughter Banquet and the announcement of the officers for next year.

Silver

Bells

"Silver Bells" was the theme of the 1959 Christmas Formal, held in Boucher Gym on December 19. The Y-Teens and Hi-Y Clubs co-sponsored the dance for the first time. A large flocked tree in the center of the floor could be seen as couples entered the gym through a path lined with Christmas trees and a small pool. Michael Golden and his orchestra provided the music for dancing. Santa Claus directed the Grand March, led by Y-Teens President Ann Swihart and her date, and by Hi-Y President Larry Klemz and his date. Couples had their pictures taken in front of a gigantic silver bell on the stage. Covering the rest of the stage was an enormous Winter scene depicting a church and a couple silhouetted in black.

The Valparaiso High School Marching Vikings, under the direction of Mr. Robert G. Miller, had a very busy season. The band started pre-school practices three weeks before school started and marched in the Riverview Mardi Gras Parade. The Vikings marched at all of the home games and provided a different type of entertainment for each one. The band, led by Drum Major Mike Butterfield, received a first award in the V.U. Homecoming Parade. They also won a first Division award and a "Sweepstakes" award at the state marching contest.

The Concert Band also had an eventful year. It presented a winter concert, a school convocation and a spring concert. In February, many of the band's members entered the state solo and ensemble contest and received awards for their ability. The con-

By following a purpose which is to create an interest in Biology among the students of V.H.S., the Biology Club performs many interesting functions under the guidance of Mrs. Carolyn Bush. A main project this year was experimenting with protozoan culture. The club heard two speakers from Valparaiso University and saw many educational films. In the spring it took a field trip to the dunes.

The purpose of the Science Club is to bring together the students interested in science and help them in gaining extra knowledge of the subject. This year besides having speakers who spoke about many interesting fields of science, they also took some field trips around Valparaiso. Through the work of the sponsor, the officers, and the members themselves, the year was very successful.

The students of V.H.S., who are interested in becoming teachers belong to the Future Teachers of America Club. At the meetings, the club holds discussions of the teaching profession, has panels of students and teachers, and has special speakers from the different schools. President Judy Pifer and Vice-president Pat Ireland planned the meetings and were assisted by Secretary Linda Bauer, and Treasurer Chuck Worden.

Most of the Senior members of the club have gained practical experience through the club's most important function—cadet teaching. These students have gone to the different grade schools of the school system and assisted the teachers in their classes.

Girls on the Move

Seniors and new members of G.A.A. enjoy punch, cookies, and "stuffed teddy bears" at the annual big and little sister party.

The annual coke-tail party started the G.A.A. year. The officers presented the aims and activities planned for the club, while the board members presented a skit to get the prospective members interested in their sport. At the weiner-roast, highlighted by a scavenger hunt, all freshmen and new members became "little-sisters" of the senior members. After this, things settled down and the nicks and bruises began. The year's sport schedule provided fun as well as helpful knowledge in getting along with others.

In March, the club sponsored the Sadie Hawkins dance, at which all members and their beaus were married by the Marr'in Sams. The year was finally closed with the G.A.A. Banquet. The seniors presented a skit; awards were given to the members with the highest points. The evening was concluded with the announcement of the new officers.

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS

Sitting: Bob Gahl, President. Standing: Mr. Mundy, Sponsor; Jerry Prentis, Vice-President; Mr. Rump, Sponsor; Lynne Miller, Secretary; Larry Klemz, Treasurer.

The Student Council of 1959-1960 headed by President Bob Gaul, Vice-President Jerry Prentiss, Secretary Lynne Miller, and Treasurer Larry Klemz had various important functions to perform. Its members are representatives of the entire student body and have to approve every school function before it can even be considered. The council served as a means for solving many problems arising within the school during the year. Besides attending to routine duties, this year's council amended the Constitution and adapted it more to existing conditions. The above, and many other worthwhile undertakings were successfully carried out by the Student Council, aided by its sponsors, Mr. Mundy and Mr. Rump.

Assignments! Research! Deadlines! Re-writing! Correcting! Spacing! Many more words such as these are heard each day by the 1960 Valpost staff as they endeavor to publish the bi-weekly copy of the school paper. Under the direction of the Editor-in-chief Nancy Groverman and sponsor, Mr. Crum, the editorial staff spent long hours at work so that the Valpost could go to press.

The 1960 Valenian Staff, under the direction of Mr. Brown, first began to take shape a year ago when the new editor-in-chief Lynne Miller, and her staff were chosen.

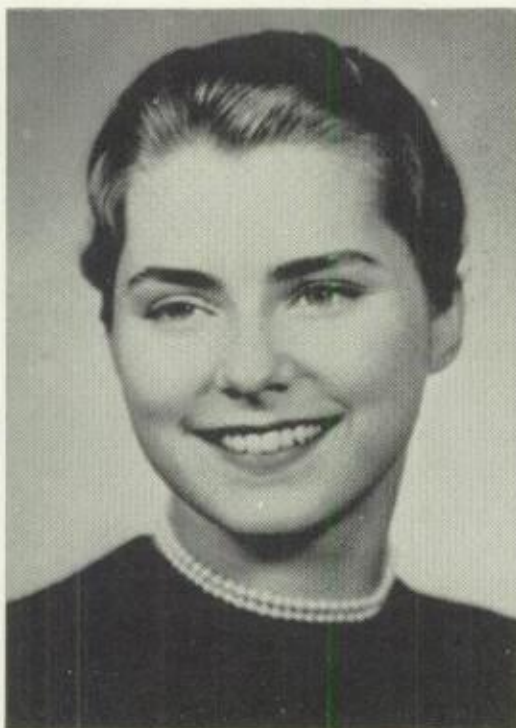

This summer Lynne and Art Editor Ellen Guild attended the Indiana Journalism Institute where they gained valuable information for production of the yearbook.

Wes Bucher and Chuck Worden were selected as co-business managers, with Chuck handling the bookkeeping and Wes directing the sale of subscriptions.

ATHLETICS

Probably the only silent moment the Pep Club experiences at any basketball or football game is during the playing of the Star-Spangled Banner. Otherwise, it is enthusiastically prodding the Viking squads on to victory, and there is a good reason behind its spirited approval of the Vikes, for many fine teams have borne the standards of V.H.S. Many are the students who have, besides developing physically, found hours of great enjoyment, teamwork, and self-discipline in basketball, football, or any of the other available sports.

Go You Vikings Go!

Every spring many eager girls practice for hours each night so that they may become cheerleaders and represent the school. If they qualify and are chosen they must practice for many more hours. Last summer the Varsity and Junior Varsity practiced early in the morning on an average of three days a week to get ready for the coming season. Of the Varsity cheerleaders, Marianne McKellips and Paula Snodgrass have been on the squad since their soph-year. Herta Dravininkas was a Junior Varsity cheerleader in her sophomore year and was chosen for Varsity when she was a junior. Clara deSimon, Olivia Wallace, and Mimi Fitzgerald completed their first year as Varsity cheerleaders. The Junior Varsity cheerleaders were Toby Tincher, Marsha Parry, Frances Helman, and Bobbie Bush. 1959 was the second year that V.H.S. had Freshmen cheerleaders; the three girls chosen were Diane Fischer, Peggy Anderson, and Linda Hill.

"Letters, we get letters"

The V-Club was organized in 1947 to promote a greater interest in athletics at V.H.S. Its members must be varsity letter-winners in any major sport. If a member of the club is found guilty of undesirable conduct, the V-Club has the authority to take his letter away and discontinue his membership.

Some of the highlights of the 1959 football season were a 97 yard run by halfback Ed Swanson at Tolleston, and a fumbled ball which was recovered in midair by tackle Gary Marten who ran 15 yards for the second touchdown of the Penn High game. According to Coach Miller, the team was plagued with injuries throughout the entire season. Coach Miller also commented that the Lew Wallace game was the best played game from a coaching standpoint. The Vikings fought hard, but lost the game 14 to 12 to the Lew Wallace Hornets. The Vikings ended the grid season with a record of 2 wins and 8 losses. For the first time in the past years the Vikings broke tradition by electing two co-captains for the entire season. The elected co-captains were fullback Dick Ebersold and quarterback Jim Donley.

The 1959-60 Swimming Team, under the coaching of Mr. Rhoda, had a record breaking year. Five individual records and two relay records were broken during the season. Three of these five individual marks were broken by Senior Ed Johnson. The Viking Aquamen finished the season with 14 wins and 4 losses. They also won the Western conference and placed third in the NIHSC conference. At the beginning of the season the team elected two honorary co-captains, Wally Wilson and Ed Johnson.

The Valparaiso Vikings compiled a fine record of 15 wins and 10 losses during the 1959-60 basketball season. The team improved steadily through the year and climaxed the season by winning the Sectional Tourney for the fourth consecutive year. The Vikings were eliminated by East Chicago Washington in the first game of the Regional.

Two individual scoring records were broken during the season by co-captain John Worstell. A new single game record was set by John when he scored 43 points over Chicago DuSable, and he also compiled 508 points for a new season total record. John Flynn served as the other elected co-captain.

In the spring of 1959 the Viking baseball team opened its season with six seniors, two juniors, nine sophomores, and two freshmen. The Vikings participated in an eleven game schedule in the West NIHSC. By beating East Chicago Washington and Gary Horace Mann, they ended up with a record of two wins and eight losses. With this second season, under the coaching of Mr. Rhoda, the Vikings gained valuable experience.

Wrestling, celebrating its third year on the roster of Valparaiso's sports, had another successful season with eight wins and three losses. Under the coaching of Paul Miller, the wrestling squad defeated Portage, Washington Clay, Gary Edison, Hammond Noll, Hammond Clark, Hammond Tech, Lowell, and Merrialville; and suffered losses at the hands of Crown Point, La Porte, and Hammond. Bill Harbeck, captain of this year's wrestling squad, Ed Swanson, Bob Sellers, Bob Biggs, and Jim Donley are the only graduating lettermen.

After winning the conference championship in 1957 and 1958, the V.H.S. cross country varsity finally went down in defeat to Emerson for the conference championship at the Forest Park Course. Previous to this meet, Valpo had won thirty-two consecutive victories in the conference. During the season Valpo defeated such teams as Michigan City, Hobart, LaPorte, Knox, East Chicago Roosevelt, Froebel, Hammond, and East Chicago Washington.

Led by co-captains, John Worstell and Bob Harding, the Vikings placed nineteenth in State after qualifying in the Valpo Sectional with fourth place. Coach Pifer has commented that the prospects for the next years are fine.

Worstell receives his placement number.

Among the crowd at the relays is Principal King Telle.

Working out with Coach Pifer are senior runners Bill Harbeck, Dean Follis, Chuck Johnson, Bob Shedd, Bob Harding, and John Worstell.

Anxious to know results is Coach Pifer.

The J.V. Cross Country team, coached by Mr. Pifer had a very successful year as shown by their record. They had eleven wins to one loss, placing second in the conference. Their only defeat was by East Chicago Washington, ending a chain of thirty-two straight victories for the jayvees. This proved to be their only defeat in three years. Steve O'Neil served as honorary captain.

Karlene

Best of luck always.
I don't know you very well, but the few times we've talked I felt you were a very sweet person. Have lots of fun in V.H.S. It's a swell place, and most don't realize it till they're on the way out.
Paula

Best of luck
Always Love
Joan

Karlene
Best of luck to you
I've been so glad to see you
John. Be
Don't

Even if I know you name it has been nice knowing you. Best of luck as a senior next fall.

It been fun knowing you. Hope we can double again sometime. Pete won't cooperate that much. The big goof! Jamie

Hi Karlene -
Good Luck to a real nice kid
Jerry Smith

Karlene,
Best of luck to one of the nicest junior girls. We sure had fun in History.

Good luck too real nice guy. Dave him in two classes. Dave is smart as a whip, even if you aren't going with him anymore. "Port"
